OUR STORY

Family-owned and operated, AmaWaterways was founded in 2002; however, our river cruise story began well before that. President Rudi Schreiner was born in Vienna, at the heart of the Danube. His love of design drew him to architecture, but his even greater love of travel drew him to places far and wide. Combining both of his passions, and coinciding with the completion of the Rhine-Main-Danube Canal in 1992, Rudi became a driving force for river cruise travel—and for these efforts has been recognized as the “Most Innovative Cruise Executive” and was presented with the prestigious “Lifetime Achievement Award” by Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA).

Executive Vice President Kristin Karst brings extensive experience in luxury travel, river cruising and customer service to AmaWaterways. Rudi and Kristin partnered with Jimmy Murphy, a brilliant travel entrepreneur who built Brendan Vacations. His son, Gary, now carries on his father’s legacy in his role as Vice President of Sales.

From the beginning, our goal was to create a river cruise company that we ourselves would enjoy. To us, that meant excellent food and wine, comfortable and tasteful décor, ample space in which to relax, and staterooms with maximum views to enjoy the ever-changing scenery.

THE EXOTICS

The Mighty Mekong

GIRLS COMMUTING TO SCHOOL, TONLÉ SAP RIVER, VIETNAM

THE MOTHER OF WATER

The Mekong River begins high on the Tibetan plateau and winds its way through China and the rainforests, plains and rice fields of five Southeast Asian countries before meeting the sea. In terms of its historical, cultural and ecological riches, the Mekong—"the Mother of Water"—has no equal. The sagas of ancient empires, colonial powers and modern conflicts have unfolded along the Mekong for centuries. Even today, it is impossible to overstate the river's importance for the many millions of Vietnamese and Cambodians who live along its vast length. The fortunes of the Mekong Delta and Tonlé Sap Lake are inextricably linked and serve as the primary source of life for the people of this incredibly fertile region.

The best way to experience the Mekong is by river cruise, which allows you to fully appreciate the sights and sounds of this fabled and fascinating waterway. From the vantage point of your ship, you can witness the compelling contrast of the modern-day river and its ancient past. Sampans and motorboats yield to each other as fishermen in conical hats check their nets while chatting on cell phones. It is an awe-inspiring spectacle that simply must be seen to be believed. Wherever the Mekong takes you, the sincere warmth and friendliness of the Vietnamese and Cambodian people will leave a lasting impression.

PHNOM PENH: THE PEARL OF ASIA

Cambodia's Phnom Penh sits at the junction of the Mekong, Bassac and Tonlé Sap rivers. The city blends stunning traditional Khmer architecture with French Colonial influences and bejeweled Buddhas. The Royal Palace is one of its most iconic landmarks, despite being built only a century ago. It is the official residence of King Norodom, though visitors may visit a cluster of surrounding buildings and the Palace's Throne Hall.

Next to the palace, the Silver Pagoda complex features five tons of gleaming silver that line the floor, a small emerald Buddha, and a 200-lb. solid gold Buddha crowned with 9,584 diamonds—one of which is 25 carats!

Phnom Penh is also known for its National Museum. Housed within an elegant terracotta structure surrounded by a tranquil courtyard and gardens, the museum houses one of the world's greatest Khmer cultural collections with artifacts dating as far back as prehistoric times. A reclining bronze Vishnu statue, as well as other Hindu goddesses and deities, are a part of this collection.

A TASTE OF VIETNAM PHO BO

A hearty noodle dish perfect for warming away shivers on a winter's day, yet refreshing enough to enjoy in summer, pho bo is the epitome of Vietnamese comfort food. Found on almost every street corner and simmered in nearly every home, its complex flavors vary from cook to cook but its pleasant blend of herbs, spices and unique textures never disappoints.

Ingredients

- 2 lbs beef bones for broth
- 10½ cups water/beef stock (about 2½ cartons stock)
- 4 tsp fish sauce
- 3 tsp sugar
- 2 tsp salt
- 6 tbsp garlic
- 6 tbsp ginger
- 5 pcs star anise
- 2 pcs cinnamon sticks (broken into pieces)
- ½ cup onion
- ½ cup carrot
- Optional: ½ lb raw eye of round, sirloin, London broil or tri-tip steak, thinly sliced across the grain (1/16 inch thick; freeze for 15 minutes to make it easier to slice)

Preparation Method

Sauté the carrots and onion with the star anise, ginger, cinnamon and garlic. Caramelize until golden brown, then add the water/beef stock and bring to a boil. Lower heat and simmer for 2 hours. Leave to cool, then strain off the stock. Add fish sauce, sugar and salt. Correct the seasoning to taste. Makes approximately 6 servings.

Serve With

- Thick rice noodles (cooked)
- Bean sprouts
- Long leaves (Vietnamese mint, perilla leaves)
- Lime
- Red chili finely chopped
- Lettuce (iceberg)
- Sweet basil/hot basil
- Lemongrass
- Sliced onion

Preparation Method with Beef

Mix all ingredients into the soup and stir together. Divide noodles among 6 serving bowls and top with sirloin. Pour hot broth over the top. Stir and let sit for 5 minutes until the beef is no longer pink, and the flavors are infused. Serve with bean sprouts, Thai basil, lime wedges, hoisin sauce and chili-garlic sauce on the side.

The Colorful Contrasts of Vietnam

UNDENIABLY INTRIGUING

One of the world's great destinations, Vietnam lures us with its incredible beauty, amiable people and rich culture that has endured for centuries. It remains one of the most intriguing and dynamic countries in all of Asia, with landscapes that are as varied as its history. Blessed with a survival instinct that has seen it through many generations of conflict and upheaval, Vietnam has undergone a significant transformation and the growing sense of optimism can be felt throughout much of the country.

While visiting Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City, you'll experience the ongoing duality of art and commerce, East and West, old and new, progress and tradition, co-existing in the most harmonious ways. You'll see makeshift food stalls, mopeds zigzagging down city streets and animated vendors selling their wares at lively markets. Just beyond the city limits, however, experience a world entirely apart from urban life while sailing along the Mekong. Here, you'll get a glimpse into another era; one where people still happily honor the timeless traditions passed down through the centuries from their ancestors. A place where water buffalo roam; women in pastel-colored tunics slowly pedal their bicycles down dusty paths; and children wave to you from wooden houses on bamboo stilts. These experiences add to the many colorful contrasts of Vietnam, and to your lifelong memories.

ETHEREAL HA LONG BAY

Ha Long Bay is considered by many to be the Eighth Natural Wonder of the World, with more than 2,000 small islands rising from emerald green waters like a dragon's back. CAPTIVATING AND PRICELESS

Sharing a border with Thailand, Laos and Vietnam, Cambodia has its own distinct allure. The country is still primarily agrarian and recovering from the cruel misfortune that befell it a generation ago. Today, Cambodia is a resurgent nation, attracting visitors from around the world eager to explore its wealth of treasures as the seat of a once-great empire.

Historic capitals, lush river valleys and a traditional water blessing from Buddhist monks are yours to experience. Throughout your journey, you will meet the heart and soul of the country—the people—who have a delightful and well-earned reputation for being genuinely welcoming, friendly and gentle. In a country where nearly the entire population practices Buddhism, raised voices and displays of anger are extremely unusual.

AWE-INSPIRING ANGKOR

Nothing prepares you for your first visit to one of the world's greatest architectural achievements, Angkor Archaeological Park, a vast UNESCO-designated temple complex once lost under tangled jungle vines. Wandering amongst its ancient ruins, you will see exquisite statues and bas-relief carvings. Explore Angkor's amazing temples, such as Angkor Wat, Banteay Srei, Angkor Thom, which includes the Terrace of the Elephants and the pyramid temple of Bayon, Ta Prohm and other key sites. You'll be forever entranced by the "Lost Civilization of Asia," arguably the most remarkable architectural treasure found anywhere in Southeast Asia.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1, ARRIVE IN HO CHI MINH CITY, VIETNAM. After arriving, check into your hotel. Enjoy free time getting to know Ho Chi Minh City, still affectionately referred to by locals as Saigon. It is Vietnam's former capital. Once known as the "Paris of the Orient," it is now an industrial, cultural and educational hub.

Day 2, HO CHI MINH CITY. Always bustling, Ho Chi Minh City is a city of contrasts blending old and new, and east and west. In the morning, explore some of the city's most famous landmarks, including the former Presidential Palace, the Central Post Office, Notre Dame Cathedral and the War Remnants Museum. In the afternoon, visit Cu Chi, an immense underground network built during the Vietnam War. (B,L)

Day 3, HO CHI MINH CITY - EMBARKATION. In the morning, visit Ben Thanh Market—one of the oldest and most iconic structures in Ho Chi Minh City. Board the AmaDara at My Tho Port. Meet your fellow travelers at a Welcome Dinner as the ship cruises to Cai Be. (B,L,D)

Day 4, CAI BE - SA DEC. Take a local boat to Cai Be. You will have an opportunity to visit candy and rice paper-making workshops and the historic Kiet Old House.

Later in the day, journey to Sa Dec, a sprawling town on the Mekong Delta, where French writer Marguerite Duras spent part of her youth. You will visit the local market, Cao Dai Temple and the house of Mr. Huynh Thuy Le, Duras' Chinese paramour, on whom her prize-winning novel, The Lover, is said to be based. (B,L,D)

Day 5, TAN CHAU - BORDER CROSSING. Enjoy a visit to Tan Chau, a small Mekong River town unspoiled by tourism. You will have the opportunity to get an authentic experience and take a traditional "xe-loi" (trishaw) ride around the town, with stops at silk-making and rattan mat workshops, followed by a boat ride through the narrow channels of the Mekong River to "Evergreen Island." Alternatively, simply take the boat ride to Evergreen Island and return to Tan Chau, where you will visit a rattan mat workshop. Later in the day, cruise from Vietnam to the Cambodian border en route to Phnom Penh. (B,L,D)

Day 6, PHNOM PENH, CAMBODIA. This morning's excursion takes you to Cambodia's infamous Killing Fields and the Khmer Rouge's grim Tuol Sleng S21 detention center (Genocide Museum). After lunch on board, you'll explore the highlights of the city, followed by a visit to the Royal Palace, the spectacular Silver Pagoda and the National Museum, which has an outstanding collection of Khmer crafts. After returning to the ship, enjoy Khmer folk dancing performed by local children in the Saigon Lounge. (B,L,D)

Day 7, PHNOM PENH – OKNHATEY VILLAGE. Experience Phnom Penh via an authentic tuk tuk ride and be enchanted by the city's French Colonial architecture and tree-lined boulevards set amidst monumental Angkorian architecture. Alternatively, you may wish to shop for unique treasures at the bustling yellow-colored Central Market. Later in the morning, set sail for Oknhatey Village. Oknhatey is "Silk Island," located on the lush banks of the Mekong River and known for its rich tradition of silk weaving. While here, you'll visit a local elementary school and observe the traditional silk weaving of handicrafts. Afterwards, the ship sets sail for Kampong Chhnang. (B,L,D)

Day 8, KAMPONG CHHNANG – KAMPONG TRALACH. A local motorboat takes you into the lakeside wetlands that form the mouth of Tonlé Sap River. Enjoy the stunning variety of bird life here as well as tranquil floating villages and the busy waterfront market. Later in the day, the ship sails to Kampong Tralach. (B,L,D)

Day 9, KAMPONG TRALACH – OUDONG – KOH CHEN. In Kampong Tralach, you'll have a truly authentic excursion – an oxcart ride through a local village along the river bank. Afterwards, you'll go to Oudong, Cambodia's former royal capital from the early 17th century until 1866. Today, Oudong is a place of pilgrimage for Cambodians. While here, be treated to a memorable Buddhist Blessing Ceremony at a monastery. During the afternoon, take a leisurely walk through Koh Chen and visit home workshops specializing in silver- and copper-smithing. You'll get an up-close view of how local artisans make ornamental items often used in traditional ceremonies. (B,L,D)

Day 10, PREK K DAM – DISEMBARKATION – SIEM REAP. Disembark at Prek Kdam, a small village on the Tonlé Sap River, and transfer by motorcoach to Siem Reap, gateway to the Angkor Archaeological Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the former capital of the Khmer empire. You'll visit nearby Ta Prohm, known as the "Kingdom of the Trees," for the way in which the temple stones have become intertwined with thick forest vegetation. (B,D)

Day 11, SIEM REAP – ANGKOR. Begin your morning exploration of the temple complex at Angkor Wat, the most iconic of all Angkorian temples, built by King Suryavarman II in the early 12th century to honor the Hindu god, Vishnu. An afternoon excursion takes you to see the fascinating jewel in the crown of Angkorian art, Banteay Srei, which means "Citadel of Women," as it has been said that the carving is too fine to have been done by the hand of man. During the evening, be treated to a special "Apsara Dancing Show" at your hotel, featuring local Cambodian/Khmer folk dancers. (B,D)

Day 12, SIEM REAP – HANOI, VIETNAM. After breakfast, you will have a guided sightseeing tour of Angkor Thom, meaning "the great city." This is home to Bayon Temple, best known for its gigantic smiling stone faces, as well as the Terrace of the Elephants and the Terrace of the Leper King. Later in the day, take a short flight to Hanoi, the capital city of Vietnam. (B,L)

Day 13, HANOI. From ancient temples to French Colonial architecture and modern-day skyscrapers, along with beautiful parks and lakes, Hanoi is an eclectic and lively city. A morning sightseeing tour will showcase some of Hanoi's most famous historic and cultural sites, including Ba Dinh Square and The Temple of Literature. You will also visit the infamous prison that American POWs sarcastically dubbed the "Hanoi Hilton" during the Vietnam War. In the afternoon, experience an authentic rickshaw ride (known as a "cyclo") in the Old Quarter, followed by a traditional water puppet show. (B)

Day 14, HANOI – HA LONG BAY. Take a scenic drive from Hanoi to one of Vietnam's most renowned locations, Ha Long Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Board an elegantly appointed ship designed with all the modern conveniences to ensure smooth sailing for an incredible once-in-a-lifetime experience and an AmaWaterways Exclusive. The backdrop of the bay's magnificent scenery and dramatic limestone cliffs and rock formations provide you with the perfect setting for a memorable sojourn. (B,L,D)

Day 15, HA LONG BAY – HANOI. Spend the morning sailing across the emerald waters of Ha Long Bay with more than 2,000 small islands rising from the water like a dragon's back. Later in the morning, disembark the ship and transfer back to Hanoi where you can enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. (B,L)

Day 16, DEPART HANOI. Bid farewell to Vietnam and prepare for your homeward flight. (B)

GIVING BACK: AMAWATERWAYS' CAMBODIAN SCHOOL PROJECT

AmaWaterways proudly sponsors the ODA (Opportunities of Development thru Art) Free Village School outside of Siem Reap, Cambodia. Our financial support helped build the school and we continue to provide funds for teachers' salaries, school supplies and other necessities.

The ODA Free Village School brings critical English-language skills to local children for whom fluency is the key to acquiring employment in adulthood, much of which is centered on the tourism industry in Siem Reap. In addition, introductory computer skills are taught that have the power to help these poverty-stricken children in outlying villages turn their whole families' lives around through permanent salaried, government or tourism-related jobs.

Many classes are offered at night to accommodate children who must divide their time between working the family rice plot and gaining their education. The school also serves as a community center for nearby residents of all ages.

All of us at AmaWaterways are inspired by the delightful children who attend the ODA Free Village School and are honored to be involved with such a worthwhile, life-changing project.

AMA offers the travel and enters into these terms and conditions with you pursuant to arrangements made with AWL. “Carrier” refers to the respective vessel owner.

Deposit and Final Payment are per person: To confirm a cruise or cruise & land reservation, we require a deposit of C$500 per person on or before the deposit due date indicated on the confirmation. Transoceanic airline flights and packages require an additional deposit of C$450 per person for economy class or C$750 per person for business/first class flights. Certain airline tickets require non-refundable, full payment at the time of reservation. Hotel Extra Nights require a non-refundable deposit of C$50 per booking at the time of confirmation of the hotel availability. Final payment is due no later than 90 days before the travel start date.

Cancellation Charges: In the unfortunate event a participant must cancel travel, notice to AmaWaterways must be via email to Res@AmaWaterways.ca, which must include a return receipt and read notation, or other writing stating clearly and correctly each guest’s name, ship name, start and end date of the cruise and a brief statement of the reason for cancellation. Other forms of notice are not sufficient. The effective date of the cancellation is the date we receive the written cancellation notice. A change in sailing date, name changes, the substitution of a participant or a reduction in the number of guests in a stateroom are treated as a cancellation in that all applicable cancellation charges apply. Cancellation charges for bookings within charter and part-charter agreements are as per the charter contract. All other cancellation charges are per person, based on the cancellation date, per Cancellation Charges chart below.

Pricing: All prices are in Canadian dollars. In the event that a cruise fare listed, quoted or advertised through any website, printed collateral, reservations person, travel agent or any other source is booked, but is incorrect due to an electronic error, typographical error, human error or any other error causing the fare to be listed, quoted or advertised for an amount not intended by AmaWaterways, AmaWaterways reserves the right to correct the erroneous fare by requesting the passenger to pay the correct fare intended, or by canceling the cruise. Airfares, air taxes and air surcharges quoted on your invoice or by a reservation agent are only guaranteed once airfare deposit or full payment is received by AmaWaterways. AmaWaterways reserves the right to increase prices without notice.

Prices Do Not Include: Vessel fuel surcharges; airfare; passport and visa fees; baggage fees; port charges and fees; travel protection; vaccinations; laundry; additional food and beverages; optional excursions; gratuities or other items or services of a personal nature.

Passport and Visas: A valid passport is required for each participant. Passports must be valid for at least six (6) months after the scheduled return date to your home country. For travel to Asia, we require a copy of your valid passport prior to or at final payment. If not received at this time, embarkation may be denied and cancellation penalties will apply. Guests on the Vietnam/Cambodia Cruise & Land program must obtain a Multiple Entry Visa for Vietnam, as they will have two different points of entry into Vietnam, and an Entry Visa for Cambodia. Guests on the cruise only Vietnam/Cambodia itinerary will require a single entry visa for Vietnam and Cambodia. Non-US citizens must consult the appropriate consulates regarding visa and other document requirements. Obtaining required visas and any other required travel documentation, and assuring these are complete and correct in all ways, is the sole responsibility of each participant. We are not in a position to obtain or verify the accuracy or completeness of any participant’s visa or other required documentation and shall not be responsible or liable for delay or missed portion of any part of the itinerary or other problems resulting from the participant lacking the appropriate travel documentation.

Travel Documents: Only after receipt of full payment, travel documents (including airline confirmation information, if applicable) will be sent by regular ground delivery (US & Canada), approximately 3-4 weeks prior to departure. (Delay in final payment will delay delivery of travel documents.) Expedited delivery may be possible for an additional charge.

FLIGHTS & AIRPORT TRANSFERS

Flight Schedules & Airfares: AmaWaterways offers special airfares based on the flight and seat availability of contracted carriers. We are able to accept a traveler’s choice of preferred air carrier, flight schedule, and some deviations so long as the requests are made at the time of booking the airline reservation. To hold/confirm an airline reservation, the airlines require your full legal name as it appears on your passport. For contract airline fares a deposit of C$450 per person (economy class tickets) or C$750 per person (business/first-class tickets) is required to secure the flight schedule and quoted price. Published airfare prices require full payment at the time of reservation. Once the airfare deposit or full payment is received your airline tickets will be issued and any changes will be subject to penalty if not cancelled within 24 hours of ticketing. Should the name on your airline reservation not match your passport exactly, your airline reservation will have to be cancelled, full penalties will be assessed and your reservation will have to be recreated subject to market pricing at the time of the new reservation.

Air tickets are Economy class. Upgrading to Premium Economy, Business or First Class is possible for an additional charge pursuant to the terms and conditions of the relevant airline(s). AmaWaterways guarantees upgrades for long-haul flights, but not U.S. Domestic flights, intra-Europe, intra-Asia and intra-Africa flights. Upgrades may not be possible when an air carrier changes the schedule, aircraft type, experiences a strike, overbooking or flight interruption of any kind. Air carriers reserve the right to do all the above. In such cases, all claims for airfare adjustment must be requested directly to the air carrier.

Air carriers require the passenger name to appear on the airline ticket exactly it appears on the passport. If it does not match exactly, AmaWaterways shall not be responsible or liable for the consequences which could include re-issue fees or denial of boarding. AmaWaterways shall not be responsible or liable for costs resulting from airline schedule changes, lost air ticket, delay, disruption or cancelled flight, lost or damaged baggage, missed connections, downgrades, denied boarding or voluntarily buying replacement tickets without the express consent of the air carrier. In any of these instances, claim must be made directly with the air carrier.

Changes: Airline tickets issued by AmaWaterways have restrictions and cannot be reissued, transferred, or exchanged. Any changes whatsoever made to an airline ticket will incur a minimum C$450 per ticket change fee for Economy (C$750 for Business), plus any additional increase in the cost of the airfare. A change or refund request for tickets purchased through AmaWaterways must be made through AmaWaterways, but may not be possible.
